A REFLECTION

FROM FR. JOHN

With all the chances to stay home during the pandemic, I wonder if, overall, people have spent this additional down time to work on their spirituality, our relationship with Jesus Christ.

All around me I have heard complaints of boredom, and apathy, but I have yet to hear, “I sure am closer to Christ in this tough time!” Not that it hasn’t happened, but we tend to focus on our down time as time wasted. This is the work culture many of us were raised in.

So, what if you would want to spice up your spiritual life? What might you try? Scripture reading is prayerful, especially the Gospels. Spiritual reading is a popular way to broaden your prayer life and a good Catholic book is as close as the internet.

What about Reconciliation? Have you been to Confession since the slow down? What about daily Mass, have you tuned into Facebook to see daily Mass?

What about the Community Kitchen? Have you ever thought about coming to work on Monday late afternoon, early evening? It’s great fellowship. Some even cook desserts at home and bring them for all.

What about the Rosary? Have you prayed the Rosary or the Divine Mercy Chaplet? Individual and communal prayer is calming, relaxing, and moves one closer to Christ. Prayer is central to our lives as Christians, don’t say “I’m bored,” say “I’m going to pray.”

And what about union with the Body of Christ? Have you checked on your favorite parishioner? Do you attend Eucharist as much as you can safely receive? Do you praise God in the Liturgy? Have you ever been to our weekly Adoration? What about St. Mary First Saturday Mass?

The Church has much to offer to take your spirituality to the next level. Use this downtime to your advantage to get closer to Christ.
